Elegantly positioned behind a picket fence and impressive established front garden, this delightful family character home offers an eclectic mix of old and new with a neutral palette and various textures giving this home a warm, welcoming feel.

Coloured leadlight windows of the front door capture the natural light and channel through into the formal entry foyer. Timber floors and delicate molded ceilings extend through the original part of the home and are evident as you walk through the home.

A versatile front sitting room or bedroom features double glass doors to the side verandah and an original corner fireplace mantel. There are 3 additional bedrooms, the main offering a corner gas heater and distinctive cast molded ceiling with octagonal-shaped castings and intricate
