

20 Sherwood Terrace Glen Osmond SA

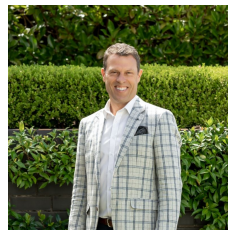

4 3 2

Uniquely designed and renovated, the home's eclectic mix of mid-century architecture and modern designer renovations synchronise to offer brilliant contemporary family living.

Decked patios are found all around this home to offer ample opportunities to take in stunning views. The main viewing deck sitting atop of the lower garage feels suspended in mid-air and creates the illusion you are floating over and above the city lights.

One of the many features of this home is found on the lower level. A multi-purpose space, which is completely self-contained and offers a large kitchenette that leads via sliding glass doors to a lower viewing deck. There is an open plan living/study area and bedroom with wall-to-wall built-in cupboards, split system r/c a/c and modern luxury
