The home boasts a modern and stylish design, featuring a sleek contemporary exterior with timber-clad eaves alongside panelled and rendered exterior walls. Embracing the latest interior design trends, combining straight modern lines provides a timeless appeal.

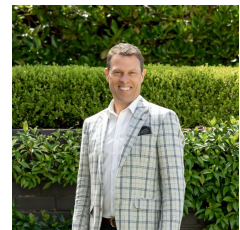

Inside, warming oak timber floors extend from the entry to the rear open-plan living. A striking timber staircase, adorned with a double-height ceiling, bathes the space in natural light, courtesy of the void above. Downstairs, you'll find the convenience of internal access from the double side-by-side garage. A powder room services the ground floor and is adjacent to the large laundry with ample storage.
